

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL OF NURSING

Lifelong Learning

2nd International Conference on Narrative Pedagogy Research and Scholarship
June 29 - 30, 2008
Indiana University, Memorial Union
Bloomington, IN

*Listening and Responding:
Converging Conversations of Education, Practice and Research*

Call for Abstracts

Participant sessions for the 2nd International Conference on Narrative Pedagogy Research and Scholarship will be structured for you to present your ongoing or completed pedagogical research, to share the innovations you are enacting in your courses, or to discuss particular opportunities or challenges you are addressing as you embark upon pedagogical reform. Sessions will be scheduled for 30 minutes and will be followed by a response and moderated discussion. If you are interested in presented your work, please submit an abstract of no more than 300 words describing your research. This abstract should include:

- Purpose of the project/initiative
- Brief overview of the research, teaching innovation, or pedagogical issue
- Implications for teaching and learning within and/or across disciplines
- Proposed, ongoing, or completed project evaluation
- Implications for future research and pedagogical development

To facilitate blind review, please provide your name, affiliation and contact information on a separate page. All submissions should be sent to Pam Ironside at crne@iupui.edu by May 1, 2008. You will be notified of acceptance by May 30, 2008. For further information, please contact Pam Ironside at pamirons@iupui.edu.